Christ and the City

Lesson for March 4, 1956

CENSUS takers have long been dividing us Americans into "Rural" and "Urban." The fact is, wherever we may live, if we are not in a city we are in many ways affected by cities. The magazines and papers we read are often published in cities. Most of the things a farmer uses—tractors, combines, fertilizers, tools, came from cities. Our clothes were made in cities, our laws were made there. Your casket may have already been made in some city. There is a state in America which has just one large city. A former resident of that state told the Dr. Foreman writer that very few small towns there amounted to anything, because all the young people in the state who had any ambition struck out for that big city as soon as they could. One way or another, we are all becoming "urban" pretty fast.

Enthusiasm Is Fragile

The largest city Jesus ever saw brought tears to his eyes, and no wonder. Some of the things he saw are true of cities and of urban civilization today. They are true of our American way of life, 20th-century style. One was the swiftly rising, and as swiftly falling, enthusiasm of the crowds. There they came with joyful shouts of welcome on Palm Sunday morning; and by Friday morning some of the same mob would be screaming, "Crucify him!" City people take quickly to new ideas and new heroes—and quickly drop them. They will strew tons of ticket-tape and torn-up telephone books (for lack of palm branches) on some returning hero, but in six months' time won't be able to remember his name. Explain it as you like, the fact is that urban enthusiasms are fragile. That goes for most of us. What we live for in our urban America is mostly excitement. We live from headline to headline, from thrill to thrill. Advertisers do their best to stir us up. They talk of "exciting" new colors, exciting new fashions, even believe it or not exciting new toothpaste. The advertisers know that if we can really be persuaded that a thing is exciting, we'll buy it! We would rather listen to a new idea than a true one. That's city fever.

Mass Man

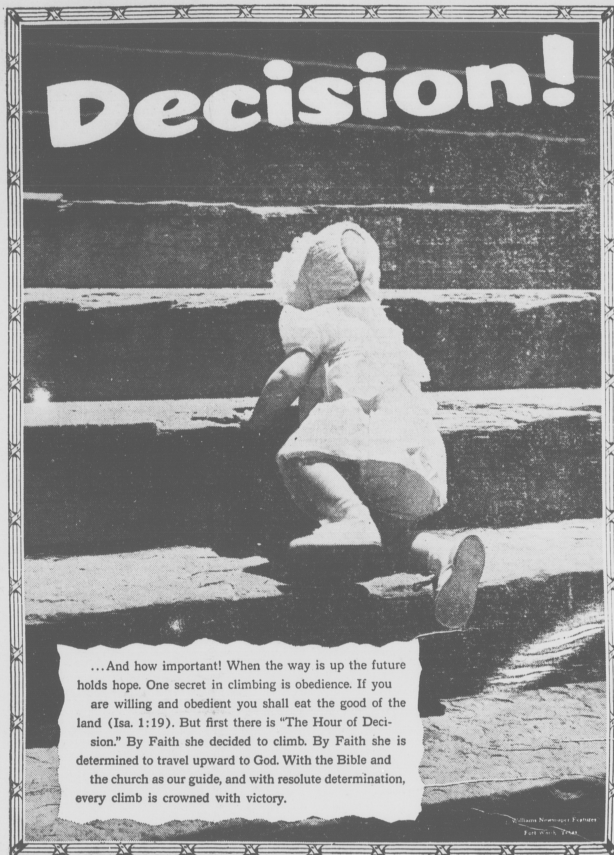

In the days of Davy Crockett, whose ghost, we trust, will have been laid to rest before these lines meet the public eye—in the days of Davy C. and of Dan'l Boone, nearly all Americans were living in the country, as we would call it today. Even the cities were small. Those were the days of rugged individualism. When a neighbor came within 50 miles of Daniel Boone, he thought the woods were getting too crowded, so the legend has it—and moved on. Nowadays in our more urban era, we have come to the time of "Mass Man" as philosophers call him. The city is the Land of Follow-my-Leader. It is the dwelling-place of the Joiners. Mr. Boone did not belong to many societies; but where is the man today who is happy without belonging to enough clubs and societies to keep him out every night? Mass Man is a rather sad spectacle. Jesus wept over him there in Jerusalem. The people of that city were like sheep, doing, saying, even thinking what their Scribes and Pharisees told them to. The men of Jerusalem would not look for themselves, they "knew not the time of their visitation." They did not know when God was knocking at their door. If Christ came to America today, would Mass Man recognize him? Or would he be under suspicion because he would not fit the universal pattern?

Den of Robbers

The city over which Jesus wept was the site of a magnificent Temple, built as a place of worship. But when Jesus visited it, he found a cattle-market going on in the very middle of it. What should have been worship had turned to money-making. So it is too often with an urban civilization. Built on business, on the market-place, it tends to turn everything into a market-place. Art is commercialized; so is education, so are athletics, politics, sometimes religion. If the reader thinks this is exaggerated, let him look around during this month and see some everyday examples of how religion is commercialized in America. We are approaching the joyful Christian festival of Easter. How many thousands of people in our land are planning to make money out of it?

SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM

...And how important! When the way is up the future holds hope. One secret in climbing is obedience. If you are willing and obedient you shall eat the good of the land (Isa. 1:19). But first there is "The Hour of Decision." By Faith she decided to climb. By Faith she is determined to travel upward to God. With the Bible and the church as our guide, and with resolute determination, every climb is crowned with victory.

Shepherdsville Road

By Mary Owen Fisher

(Delayed)
Mrs. Mary Owen Gentry was born April 3, 1886, the youngest child of the late George M. and Viola Bennett Owen on the Shepherdsville Road, two miles west of Mt. Washington. She united with Bethel Methodist Church December 15, 1900 under the pastorate of the late Rev. W. B. Lacy. Was married to Chester Gentry July 5, 1915. She died February 15 at Norton Infirmary, Louisville.

Gentry had been a victim of arthritis for five years and had been a great sufferer through all those years, yet no one ever heard her complain, she always met all visitors with a smile. Few mothers have given as she has to her country, five of her six sons spent their allotted time in service, she bade them farewell and welcomed them home, except the youngest, Billy, who is in the air corps, stationed in the Denver, Colo. area.

He was not here when his mother passed away, but was able to reach here Saturday morning. Heavy snows there kept him from getting home sooner. However in December he was able to come home for a 30-day furlough.

Horace, the one son that was not in service, was called but the untiring efforts of the draft board succeeded in keeping him at home that he might be near his mother. And he did that task well, he spared neither time, money nor attention to keep his mother as comfortable as possible.

Monday night, February 13 she suffered a severe heart attack. Dr. Bowen was called, and advised that she be taken to the hospital, she was removed to Norton Infirmary, where she continued to have other heart attacks until the end came.

Her funeral was conducted at the McAfee Funeral Home, Washington, and from Bethel Methodist Church Sunday by her life long friend J. Edgar Fisher, assisted by her pastor, the Rev. W. S. Peters, with interment in the church cemetery.

The large following of friends and the many beautiful floral offerings were unspoken tribute to how much she was loved. She is survived by the following loved ones, Husband, Chester Gentry, three daughters Mrs. Martin King, (Dora Lena) Mrs. Walter Owen, (Valeda), Miss Doris Gentry, six sons Wilbur, Errel, Haskell, Dale, Horace, and Billy; seven grandchildren and one sister.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Culbertson will keep open house next Sunday, February 26, from 3 to 8 p.m. for their son and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Glenn Culbertson. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends to call.

Bland Porter who went to Norton Infirmary last Monday, February 13, to have the pin removed from his leg that was broken in two places September 11, 1954, went thru the operation with flying colors and came home Saturday, and is doing fine, getting about on crutches.

Laura Lee, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Gentry, is ill, suffering with an infected ear. Dr. Rush, Fern Creek, is treating her.

Mrs. C. E. Carrithers, Jr., and Mary Ann, Taylorsville, came by Friday and got her sister, Mrs. Jean C. Hall, and they spent the day at home.

Mrs. Myrtle Funk, Frankfort, was a guest Sunday of Mrs. Mary Fisher. Her brother R. E. Owen, Fern Creek, came by and took them to Mrs. Gentry's funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Foster were in Louisville Saturday. Mr. Swearingen Harris is building his sixth house on this road on the tract adjoining his home. He has 15 more houses to build on this tract. He and his helper do all the work, from the cement or concrete basement to the top.

The Rev. W. T. Gardner and the Cornell Grocery at Pleasant Grove have just had phones installed on line 62 running into the Mt. Washington Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Eldridge, Fern Creek, visited their daughter Mrs. A. Bleemel, and family Saturday.

Mrs. Vernon Moore is at Norton Infirmary, Louisville for an operation.

High View News

By Mrs. Joe Baete

We had 137 in Sunday School last Sunday with a lot more for preaching service. Bro. Schreiner was there after being away for two Sundays. He started on a series of sermons entitled "What we should know in order to save souls" and conducted a service.

Sunday afternoon, Bro. Schreiner, with the singing chorus, went to Forrest Hill Baptist Church where he conducted a service.

Sunday night after preaching there was a fellowship hour held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stout.

Friday night, Miss Elzora Cant and Mr. R. B. Stevens were quietly married in the parlor of Bro. and Sister Schreiner in the presence of their immediate families.

They left that night for a short wedding trip. On their return will go to housekeeping in Bullitt County near Kings Church.

Mrs. Grace Lane was hostess at a Stanley party last Thursday morning at her home. There were 16 ladies present and three children. A good time was had by all.

Friday night, February 24, Mrs. Nancy Bledsoe was hostess at a party at her home for the following ladies:

Mrs. Grace Lane, Margaret Parnell, Lorraine Schreiner, Anna Rose Baete, Nannie Young, Hazel Tappin, Nettie Con, Marjorie Wright, Vernetta Baete, Beanie Harris, Pearl Seebold, Aline Burroughs and Mayme Gootley.

All had an enjoyable night, not much sleeping, mostly playing and eating with a Bible lesson. The church service which lasted from 11 until 12:30.

Later in the morning Mrs. Schreiner held a long Bible quiz which really showed how dumb we were. All left for home Saturday morning about 7:30 after having a nice breakfast of toast, bacon, eggs, coffee and donuts.

Nancy sure makes a fine hostess and we are so proud and thankful to have her home open up so often for good clean Christian fellowship with one another. May God bless her and her family.

Mr. Stout and the children spent the night with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Stout, Sestonville.

So glad to see Mrs. Catherine Fleicher back in church Sunday has been under the weather. Her husband, Mr. Frank Wold, Jr., and children were recent supper guests of the Fleichers.

Mrs. Nettie Con gave a party Sunday for Mrs. Rosemary Baete, Miss Elzora Cant, who was married Friday night. She received a lot of beautiful and useful things.

Mrs. Carolyn Peak gave a stork sack for Mrs. Rosemary Baete, Friday night, February 17. There were 15 ladies present. Due to the rainy night, a lot of the women didn't get to come.

Saturday night, February 18, Mrs. Joyce Blair gave a bridal shower for Miss Ann Phelps, who will soon become the bride of their cousin, Wally Stone. About 15 ladies and men, but not all received a lot of useful and pretty things. Their wedding will be some time in March.

Mr. Russell Ernst has been off from work for a few days due to an illness. Hope he is soon feeling better.

Mrs. Carolyn Peak spent the day in Louisville with Mrs. Rosemary Baete and family.

Mrs. Joyce Blair made a short visit in the Baete home last Thursday. She was telling of receiving a letter from her son, Douglas, who is in the Air Force and will soon receive his wings for flying. They hope to be able to go to the ceremony celebration so she can pin the wings on him. He is stationed in Kenston, N. C., and is 2nd Lieutenant.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Malone were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Blair and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boehler were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baete and family.

Mr. Jimmy Welch goes to a gutter operation. Mr. Mason Gootley isn't at all well.
